MANAGEMENT COMMENTARY (QUARTERLY)

First quarter of 2025 saw a comeback of volatility, global equity markets retreated in February, driven by the threat of tariffs and weaker economic data in the US. The USD depreciated against its peers, with the most significant moves observed against the INR and the EUR. Bond futures also pulled back, particularly in the European markets. Equities broadly ended in negative territory, with India as the notable exception while the most pronounced declines were observed across US equity indices. In this context our CTA strategies posted negative performances with Lyxor Epsilon Global Trend down close to 2%, with currencies being the largest detractor, and Schroeder GAIA BlueTrend down by 10% over the quarter, led by commodities and FX exposure. If the Long/Short bucket posted mixed returns, Schroeder Gaia Egerton Equity delivered a positive return of +6,3%, outperforming the market, with both longs and shorts generating alpha. And the top performer of the Funds was BDL Rempart with a +10,6% performance over the quarter, the short bucket posting a +10% positive alpha.
